Christmas message

Companions,

As Christmas fast approaches I would like to pass on the compliments of the season and thank you all for your support this year.

It has been a sad year with the passing of both one of our previous Deputy Provincial Grand Summus, Ian Ronson as well as our present Deputy Trevor Jewitt. These companions will be greatly missed.

There is much to look forward to in 2024, as we continue to attract new members; in fact the Scarlet Cord is the fastest growing masonic order and is now spreading out across the globe.

I have attended nearly every Consistory meeting and have thoroughly enjoyed taking part in the fantastic ceremonies offered by the order and your company at these meetings.

Next year we will have as our special guest, The Grand Summus, The Most Worthy Companion Ian Stanley Currans at our Provincial meeting where I will have the opportunity to appoint and invest Dist.Comp Paul Joynson as my Deputy.

I must thank my Assistant David Greenhalgh, along with the executive officers who work hard assisting me with my duties.

An exciting new year awaits us!

May the God of Our Fathers bring you good health at this festive time and I look forward to your company in 2024. Good wishes to you and your families from Adele and myself.

Yours Fraternally,

Allan
